remove duplicate contacts - find duplicates in contacts Remove Duplicate Contacts Usage: remove duplicate contacts - find duplicates in contacts So today is New Years Eve so what better time to take a look at an exciting new extension from Antony "tavno" Taveras. You may not know "tavno" but he is a key contributor to a lot of the awesome components for Thunderbird. From the Mamba extension to the Gmail add-on, he is a massive advocate of Thunderbird as a mail platform. The New Years update in the Newb Add-ons section shows the following new items: Thunderbird NoNainen It's a fun, quirky add-on that you can find here: Thunderbird NoNainen Description The NoNainen add-on aims to provide a more radical response to the recent trend to use the same email address for all emails by applying an easily searchable colour coding to every email account in your Thunderbird mail client. You will see a colour coded indicator next to an email account and thus know if an email should be read or deleted without having to open it.
